

In partnership with:

Central London MarketPlace and Digitalisation seminar 2 June 2014, Kensington Town Hall

Programme for the day

The MarketPlace will be open from 10am to 3pm.

There is also a programme of talks in the break out area, in the corner of the Great Hall.

Refreshments will be available in the foyer.

10.30am to 11am	Welcome and introduction	Great Hall
11.10am to 11.35pm	Setting the housing digitalisation context Amanda Johnson, Head of Housing Commissioning, Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea	Break out area
11.40pm to 12.05pm	Setting the Tri-borough assistive technology commissioning context Paul Rackham, Head of Community Commissioning, Tri-borough Adult Social Care	Break out area
12.10pm to 12.35pm	Viridian Housing's award winning digital inclusion scheme to support its over 50s residents to learn how to use the internet	Break out area
12.45pm to 1.10pm	City West Homes' pilot with Community Fibre to connect their homes to a fibre network and utilise that network to pursue a range of objectives	Break out area
1.15pm to 1.50pm	Delivering care in the digital age: new innovations Cirrus	Break out area
2pm to 2.25pm	Affinity Sutton's Get Connected project that offers a wide range of support to help local communities get online and improve their IT skills	Break out area
2.30pm to 2.55pm	Peabody's Net Worx project , set up to help older people in London learn how to use the internet. It provides free one-to-one help for older people or those who are nervous about the web	Break out area
3pm	Event closes	